

SUNDAY 14TH APR.

COME TOGETHER

Resilient and Resisting invite you to our finale event, a day long take over at the Arcola

Join us for an extravaganza of resistance.

Stories from those of us who are disabled, queer, kinky, sex workers, survivors.

AT THE ARCOLA THEATRE

TRAVELLING ARCHIVE

The Bishopsgate Institute & the MayDay Rooms: Radical Histories

EVENING PERFORMANCE & READING

Stories of Resilience and resistance! With added swoosh, glitter and song. Performance will be captioned.

PANEL DISCUSSION

Direct action groups, fighting stigma and making social change.

Resilient and Resisting, an oral history and collaborative story telling project.

Produced with support from Arcola Participation

COME TOGETHER SUNDAY 14TH APR.

Resilient and Resisting invite you to our Finale event, a day long take over...

FREE ENTRY*

Arcola Theatre
24 Ashwin Street
Dalston
E8 3DL

join us for an extravaganza of resistance...

Featuring contributions from radical history archives, the voices of direct action groups, and of course our own stories of fighting stigma and creating social change. Fierce, intimate oral histories, collaborative stories, D.I.Y. research and interviews from people at the intersection of several kinds of marginalisation. Those of us who are disabled, queer, kinky, sex workers, survivors. Much political action (of all kinds) comes from the power of survival.

12:00am

TRAVELLING ARCHIVE

Bishopsgate Institute and the MayDay Rooms bring the archive to you. Peruse and discuss artefacts and articles of radical history, Workshop on DIY documentation.

FREE ENTRY & ZINE

This is a Free Event, although ticketing may apply to evening performance due to limited capacity seating. Free ZINE so you can read along. Exhibition of the posters created from the stories on show in the Arcola Foyer.

ACCESSIBILITY

Arcola Theatre's main building is wheelchair accessible. This event will make use of areas in several levels of the building. Step-free access is provided by lift from the foyer area. Toilets are on the lower ground floor. Step-free access by lift from the foyer. There is an additional accessible toilet on the second floor next to studio 3. Performance will be captioned.

14:00pm

PANEL DISCUSSION

Direct action, fighting stigma and making social change, featuring speakers from:

- The Renters Union
- Xtalk
- English Collective of Prostitutes
- DPAC: Disabled People against the Cuts
- Women's Antifascist Assembly
- TransAntifa

16:00pm

FOOD & INTERMISSION

Because we have to keep our strength up!

18:00pm

EVENING PERFORMANCE & READING

Evening performance/reading - stories of Resilience and resistance! With a little bit more swoosh, glitter and song for the stage. Performance will be captioned.

SEXY INTIMATE STORIES OF...

Becoming, persistence and survival. Critiquing work, asking questions about HOW and why. Elder histories, lion taming, transnational travels, migration stories. All Cats Are Beautiful. Problems and solutions, how we get by! Who gets to be respectable? Pride and prejudice. Tickets to the straight world, transactions along the way, fucking with the military, stretching gender,

Being who we ARE. Coming together.

Produced with support from Arcola Participation

Arcola Participation is Arcola's community, talent development, youth and programme. We are committed to challenging assumptions around who theatre belongs to and who has a right to speak, while providing opportunities to learn, train and perform under the guidance of world-class artists. We aim to deliver high quality productions that resonate both locally and globally, whilst maintaining Arcola's welcoming and inclusive ethos.

Resilient & Resisting a collaboration between groups and individuals, with artist/activist Jet Moon, produced with support from the Heritage Lottery Fund and Arcola Participation. Fierce, intimate oral histories, collaborative stories, D.I.Y. research and interviews from people at the intersection of several kinds of marginalisation.

Find us online at resilientandresisting.org

RESILIENT & RESISTING